Understanding and Managing Stalking Behavior: Assessment, Risk, and Treatment Interventions

Presenters: Kim Spence, PhD and Eric A. Imhof, PsyD
Date: November 5, 2026
Time: 11:00 AM to 2:15 PM EST (All times East Coast USA Local Time)

11:00 am – 12:30 pm	• Introduction and Overview
	  • Defining stalking, Florida statutes, and current research
	  • Course of conduct and typical stalking tactics
	  • Re-offense risk and mental health issues
	  • Injustice and underlying shame
	• Violence Risk and Threat Assessment
	  • Workplace Assessment of Violence Risk Guide (WAVR-21 V3)
	  • Stalking Risk Profile (SRP): Typologies and risk factors

12:30 – 12:45 pm	• Break

12:45 – 2:15 pm	• Assessment Instruments
	  • Hare Psychopathy Checklist–Revised and Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI-3)
	  • Trauma Symptom Inventory–2 (TSI-2) and Social Responsiveness Scale–2 (SRS-2)
	• Treatment Challenges and Recommended Approaches
	  • Common treatment problems and treatment priorities
	  • Executive functioning skills
	  • Case studies #1–3
	• Where Do You Start?
	  • Calming techniques and empathy foundations
	  • Victim empathy, autism, and individuals who have caused sexual harm
	  • Four steps to practicing empathy
	  • Sexuality education and recommendations
	  • Coping with rejection
	• Q&A and wrap-up

Sponsored by Safer Society Foundation, Inc.
P.O. Box 340, Brandon, VT 05733
info@safersociety.org (802) 247-3132 www.safersociety.org