

Community Management of People Who Have Sexually Abused and the Challenges of Working with Special-Needs Clients

Presenter: Robin Wilson, PhD, ABPP

Recorded on: November 9, 2023

Length: 6 hours

1 hour and 30 minutes

- Introduction and overview
- Realities of sexual offending
- Risk assessment and risk factors
- The Self-Regulation Model
- The Good Lives Model
- Therapist characteristics and Program features that enhance and reduce effectiveness

1 hour and 30 minutes

- Managing risk in the community
- Registration and notification
- Strategies
 - Containment Model
 - MAPPA (Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements)
 - CASOM (Comprehensive Approaches to Sex Offender Management)
 - CoSA (Circles of Support and Accountability)
- Risk reduction through time free in the community

1 hour and 30 minutes

- Who are we talking about?
- The Risk-Need-Responsivity framework (RNR)
- Methods of assessing Risk and Need
- Getting RNR right with special-needs clients: What's missing
- Ensuring Responsivity in specialized programming

1 hour and 30 minutes

- Ensuring Responsivity in community supervision
- Employing an applied behavioural analytic approach
- Balancing risks and rights
- What can we expect: Successes and areas for further development
- Attendee questions and answers

Sponsored by Safer Society Foundation, Inc.

P.O. Box 340, Brandon, VT 05733

info@safersociety.org

(802) 247-3132

www.safersociety.org