

Exploring Cultural Competence in Forensic Practice: What Can We Learn from Evaluations and Treatment with Myanmar Refugees?

Presenter: Gangaw Zaw, PhD, and Shoba Sreenivasan, PhD,

Recorded on: July 17, 2024

Time: 2 hours

2 hours

- Introduction and overview
- Why are these evaluations so important?
- Ethnicities of Myanmar
- Ethnic oppression
- Trauma
- Trauma and justice involvement
- DSM-5-TR
- The role of listening
- Assessing the impact of violence on children
- Assessing the trauma of uncertainty
- Understanding trauma narratives

Sponsored by Safer Society Foundation, Inc.

P.O. Box 340, Brandon, VT 05733