

Evidence-Based Strategies for Treating Individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder Who Sexually Harm

Presenter: Kim Spence, PhD

Recorded on: September 13, 2024

Length: 3 hours

- 1 hour and 15 minutes
- Introduction and overview
 - Treatment considerations when supporting clients with Autism who cause sexual harm
 - Key findings in outcome data from SEED (Study to Explore Early Development)
 - Toileting and gastrointestinal issues
 - Sleep disorders
 - Suicide risk
 - Substance abuse disorders
 - Communication disorders
 - Mixed expressive/receptive language disorders
 - Sensory issues

- 1 hour and 15 minutes
- Trauma-related to having Autism or the treatment of Autism
 - Violence and shame
 - Evidence-based interventions
 - Calming techniques
 - Steps to practicing empathy
 - Sexuality education
 - Case examples and discussion
 - Q&A
 - Wrap-up

Sponsored by Safer Society Foundation, Inc.

P.O. Box 340, Brandon, VT 05733