Formulating Plans for Risk Reduction and Health Promotion with Adolescents Who Have Sexually Abused

Presenter: Tom Leversee, LCSW
Date: November 4, 2026
Time: 11:00 AM to 2:15 PM EST (All times East Coast USA Local Time)

11:00 am – 12:30 pm	• Introduction and Foundations
	  • Introduction, overview, and historical context
	  • Evidence-based holistic framework, developmental life course perspective, and pathways model
	  • Foundations of effective service delivery
	• Risk Reduction/Health Promotion Planning
	  • Risk reduction/health promotion plan and case formulation
	  • Evidence-informed pathways/subtypes and trauma-informed treatment targets
	  • Outcomes related to increased health

12:30 – 12:45 pm	• Break

12:45 – 2:15 pm	• Goals and Protective Factors
	  • Future vision/goals and case examples
	  • Strengths, talents, and community protective factors
	• Identification of Internal and External Risk Factors
	  • Offense disclosures/analysis, emotional precursors/triggers, and case examples
	  • Behavioral patterns/precursors and external risk factors
	  • Ecological influences on delinquency and motivations driving behavior
	• Resources and Prevention Planning
	  • Evidence-informed resources and Thinking for a Change
	  • Offense prevention planning
	  • Enhancing healthy sexual interests, gender identity, beliefs, and behaviors
	  • Q&A and wrap-up

Sponsored by Safer Society Foundation, Inc.
P.O. Box 340, Brandon, VT 05733

info@safersociety.org (802) 247-3132 www.safersociety.org